EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Desmond Gene on 10/05/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 1, line 11, after the word, "basis", ", wherein the resources are allocated by: calculating a total controlled resource allocation per class; calculating a resource remainder; and allocating the resource remainder to the streams of each class based on the calculated total controlled resource allocation for each class." has been inserted.

Claim 11, line 13, after the word, "basis", ", wherein the resources are allocated by: calculating a total controlled resource allocation per class; calculating a resource remainder; and allocating the resource remainder to the streams of each class based on the calculated total controlled resource allocation for each class." has been inserted.

Claim 21, line 13, after the word, "basis", ", wherein the resources are allocated by: calculating a total controlled resource allocation per class; calculating a resource remainder; and allocating the resource remainder to the streams of each class based on the calculated total controlled resource allocation for each class." has been inserted.

Claim 22, line 8, after the word, “tickets”, “, wherein the resources are allocated by: calculating a total controlled resource allocation per class; calculating a resource remainder; and allocating the resource remainder to the streams of each class based on the calculated total controlled resource allocation for each class.” has been inserted.

Claim 27, line 11, after the word, “tickets”, “, wherein the resources are allocated by: calculating a total controlled resource allocation per class; calculating a resource remainder; and allocating the resource remainder to the streams of each class based on the calculated total controlled resource allocation for each class.” has been inserted.

Claim 28, line 9, after the word, “tickets”, “, wherein the resources are allocated by: calculating a total controlled resource allocation per class; calculating a resource remainder; and allocating the resource remainder to the streams of each class based on the calculated total controlled resource allocation for each class.” has been inserted.

Claim 46, line 11, after the word, “basis”, “, wherein the resources are allocated by: calculating a total controlled resource allocation per class; calculating a resource remainder; and allocating the resource remainder to the streams of each class based on the calculated total controlled resource allocation for each class.” has been inserted.

Reasons For Allowance

2. The following is an examiner’s statement of reasons for allowance: Prior Art fails to disclose wherein the one or more tickets are configured to allow dynamic resource allocation between service classes on a per stream basis, wherein the resource are allocated by: calculating a total controlled resource allocation per class; calculating a resource remainder; and allocating the resource remainder to the streams of each class based on the calculated total controlled resources allocation for each class in combination with other limitations set forth in the respective claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Chirag G. Shah whose telephone number is 571-272-3144. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 8:30-5:00.
